

The
University
Of
Sheffield.

SPERI Inaugural Conference

The British Growth Crisis: The Search for a New Model

Panels and titles of papers

Session One

Financial regulation

Chaired by David Coates

Andrew Baker: Varieties of Financial Crisis, Varieties of Ideational Change: How and why financial regulation and macroeconomic policy differ

Andrew Hindmoor: Taming the City: Structural Power & the Evolution of British Banking Policy amidst the Great Financial Meltdown

Grahame Thompson: From Artisan to Partisan: What would it mean to be an artisan of finance?

Work, employment and growth

Chaired by Magnus Ryner

Frank Pyke: Towards a New Growth Strategy: Promoting decent work

Jason Heye & Paul Lewis: Employment protection and the Prospects for a Jobs-led Recovery

Andrew Tylecote & Paulina Ramirez: The Need for an Engaged and Expert British Capitalism

Politics and the crisis

Chaired by Vivien Lowndes

David Lewis-Baker & Joel Wolfe: UK Neoliberalism in Crisis: State & Polity Vs Global Market Power in the UK

Jane Green & Will Jennings: Valence as Macro-Competence: An analysis of mood in party competence evaluations in Great Britain

Gerry Stoker: Economic Recovery and the Politics of the Long-Term

Developmentalism and anti-Developmentalism

Chaired by Peter Taylor-Gooby

Simon Lee & Richard Woodward: The Developmental State Tradition in England

Mary Murphy: The Irish Development Crisis

Peter Taylor-Gooby: Public Policy Futures: A left trilemma?

The
University
Of
Sheffield.

Session Two

The political economy of the Anglosphere

Chaired by Bob Hancke

Terrence Casey: Is Financialisation the Achilles Heel of Anglo-American Capitalism?

David Coates: Shadows of the Past in the Making of the Future: Models of capitalism & British imperialism

Johnna Montgomerie: Round the Houses: Homeownership and failures of asset-based welfare in the UK

Roundtable 1 - What should we learn about progressive economic policy from the Labour Years

Chaired by Gerry Stoker

Panellists: Dan Corry, Graeme Cooke, Andrew Gamble & Ian Mulheirn

Lessons from elsewhere I: comparative regional perspectives on the crisis

Chaired by Bob Jessop

Joel Krieger: The lessons for Britain from the East Asian financial crisis

Matthew L. Bishop: Weathering the crisis in little England? Barbados and the search for a new growth model

Discourse analytical perspectives

Chaired by Andrew Hindmoor

Ben Clift: The UK Macroeconomic Policy Debate and the British Growth Crisis: Debt and deficit discourse in the great recession

Kate Alexander: From Prudence to Austerity: Theorising validity in British economic rhetoric

Shu Shumizu: Discourse Analysis of the Media Evaluation of the Northern Rock Crisis Management

The
University
Of
Sheffield.

Session Three

The cultural political economy of the crisis

Chaired by Andrew Baker

Bob Jessop: Imagined Recoveries, Recovered Imaginaries: A cultural political economy perspective

Ronen Palan: The Financial Crisis and Intangible Value

Richard Murphy: The Courageous State as the Foundation of Growth

Is growth the problem?

Chaired by Joel Krieger

Gareth Dale: The Growth Paradigm: A critique

Ian Gough: Green Growth and British Capitalism

Daniela Tepe: Growth – but only – if “we are all in this together!” – A feminist critique of community cohesion as ‘growth’ strategy

The pathologies of market liberalism

Chaired by Ben Clift

Ken Coutts & Graham Gudgin: Is the UK Bound to Follow Free Market Economic Policies?

James Reveley & John Singleton: London Calling: Continuity and Change in the City as Financial Other

Andrew Bowman, Ismail Erturk, Julie Froud, John Law, Adam Leaver, Mick Moran & Karel Williams (CRESC): Central Bank-led Capitalism?

Global and regional perspectives

Chaired by Graham Thompson

Gabriel Siles-Brugge: Explaining the Resilience of Free Trade: The ‘smooth-hawley’ myth and the crisis

Jeremy Green: International Dimensions of British Growth: Foreign investment and Anglo-American relations

Jonathan Perraton: Globalisation and the UK Economy Since the 1990s

The
University
Of
Sheffield.

Session Four

Scrutinising the banking sector

Chaired by Johnna Montgomerie

Andrew Hindmoor: An Institutional Analysis of Why the Big Australian Banks Survived the Global Financial Meltdown

Anastasia Nesvetailova: The Destructive Creation of Global Finance: Understanding the role of shadow banking in light of the crisis

Lessons from elsewhere II: comparative European perspectives on the crisis

Chaired by Mary Murphy

Michael Goyer, Bob Hancke & Marco Simoni: Institutional Change and its Effects in France, Germany and Italy

Magnus Ryner: The International Political Economy of Falling Wage-share: Situating working-class agency

Jenneth Parker: Sustainable Economy: European perspectives from the CONVERGE Framework 7 project

Local responses: the turn to localism?

Chaired by Ronen Palan

Chris Rogers: Localism as a crisis response

Danny MacKinnon, David Featherstone, Andrew Cumbers & Kendra Strauss: Towards Progressive Localism: Place, politics and community in Britain

Vivien Lowndes & Kerry McCaughy: Cuts, Costs and Creativity: Prospects for institutional redesign under conditions of austerity

Tim Vorley & Nick Williams: Doing More with Less: The importance of rescaling regions for the British growth model